Samuel Irvine Drysdale.

Died, in this city, Tuesday, August 13th, Samuel Irvine Drysdale, aged 79 years, 5 months and 21 days.

Mr. Drysdale was born in Jessamine county, Kentucky, February 22, 1822; was married to Miss Belinda Porter Ingram, of Adair county, May 7th, 1846; moved to Missouri in the fall of 1852 and settled on a farm twelve miles south of this city; joined the Baptist church in this city under the ministrations of Dr. Dulin; moved to Sweet Springs in 1881; returned to this city in 1900.

Such is a brief outline of the principal events in the life of an old citizen. When he was a young man, living in Kentucky, he was chosen as captain of a company of state guards. In those times "muster day" was a great event. His company afterward volunteered for the Mexican war, but the young captain had been married but a short time, and resigned his commission. While in this city he was once or twice elected to the city council from the fourth ward. While in Sweet Springs he served ten years as city collector, and refused a reelection, as he intended returning to Lexington.

He was a man of fine mind and thorough convictions. When he settled upon a course he pursued it without turning to the right or left. He was always well posted on the affairs of state and nation, and took great interest in political matters. He was a man of large heart, and his house was always open. He enjoyed company, and hospitality was second nature with him.

He was the father of eight children, all of whom were at his bedside when he died. There were: James E. Drysdale, of St. Louis; Mrs. Mollie Zeiler, of Kansas City; Mrs. W. G. Musgrove, of this city; Mrs. B. S. Cromwell, of Kansas City; Samuel I. Drysdale, Misses Kate and Lillie Drysdale, of this city, and Mrs. E. L. Spurgeon, of Sweet Springs.

He was a progressive citizen, an active friend, an indulgent father, a broad-minded Christian, a genial companion, a hospitable gentleman. He despised cowardice, and had no patience with crime of any sort. He was an unusual man, and those who knew him best admired and respected him most. For four years he has been an invalid, and now his weary body is at rest. Peace to his ashes.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Dr. Manly conducted the services.

Mrs. Sarah Hare and son, Harry, of Joplin, who have been visiting the family of her father, Mr. John Mulligan, left Tuesday evening for Kansas City, where they will visit the family of Mr. Thomas Cashen for a few days before returning to their home in Joplin.
